

2007 SEASON

'Emptiness' fills Latino Arts

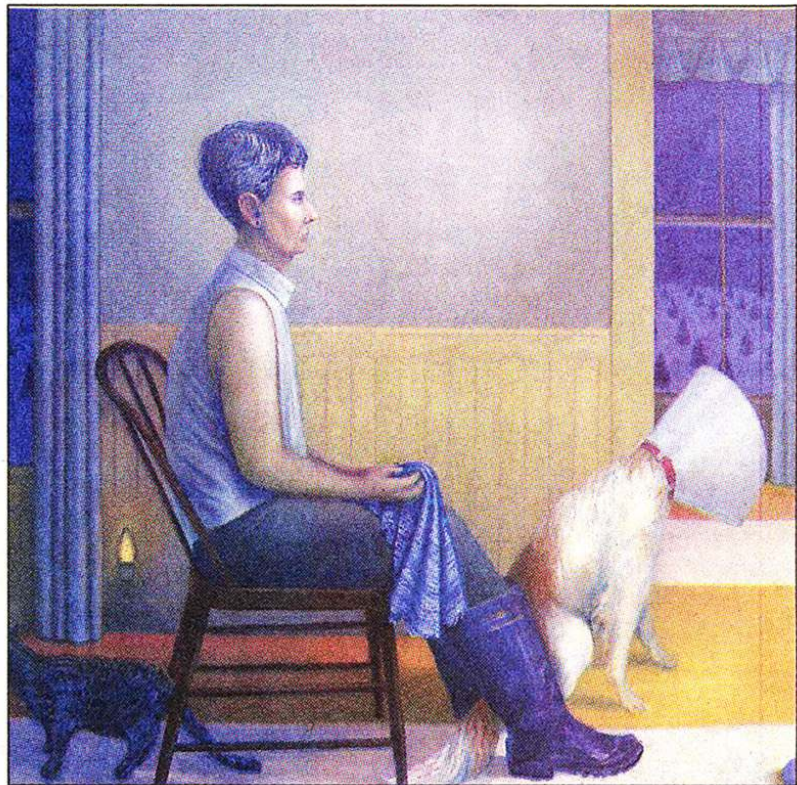

Exhibit to kick off
4 months of art,
music at UCC

Latino Arts Inc., a producer affiliated with the United Community Center, has announced its fall schedule of events.

■ Hispanic Heritage Celebration: "Substituting Emptiness," paintings by Rafael Francisco Salas. An opening reception will be 5 to 7 p.m. Sept. 14; the show will be up through Oct. 19.

Salas writes that his portraits, still lifes and landscapes are meant to describe "the ghostly romance of memory, the longing that the past creates, and reflects these traps of nostalgia."

The opening reception will honor University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee Latino Alumni and is co-sponsored by the Hispanic Professionals of Greater Milwaukee. Admission is free.

"Substituting Emptiness," an exhibit of works by Rafael Francisco Salas, starts off the Latino Arts Inc. season on Sept. 14.

The opening reception will include a signing for "Latinos in Waukesha," a new book by Walter Sava and Anselmo Villareal.

The Latino Historical

toys, and some of the toys will even be available for purchase as unique holiday gifts. Admission is free.