

Like snippets of dreams that come back at odd times, the paintings of Rafael Francisco Salas evoke memories. Although his images are slightly off-key and mysterious, they are—like dreams—based on reality and give the feeling of déjà vu. Like snippets of dreams that come back at odd times, the paintings of Rafael Francisco Salas evoke memories. Although his images are slightly off-key and mysterious, they are—like dreams—based on reality and give the feeling of déjà vu.

Marilyn Stasiak, Curator, Neville Public Museum
For “Paintings by Rafael Francisco Salas”
4/25 – 8/16/09